

Texas Executive Education: Education Campaign “The Bigger Picture”

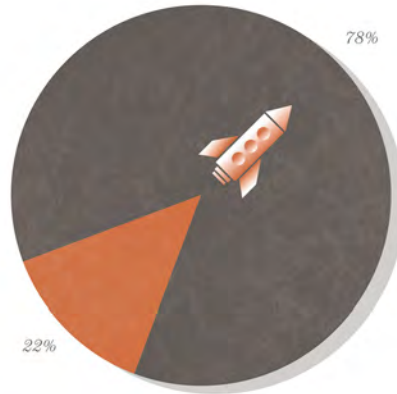

Texas Executive Education offers classes to high level business professionals looking to innovate, hone and polish their already formidable skillset.

We built out a print, digital, and collateral materials campaign introducing executives to the bigger picture of career growth by educating them on how to get ahead in the boardroom, by sharpening their edge in the classroom.

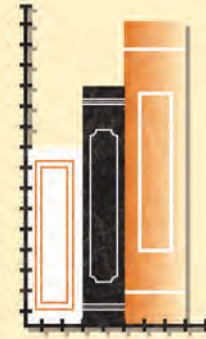

Using business insights and custom illustrations, the campaign is part business infographic, part metaphor, and always different.

THE MODERN EXECUTIVE SERIES

Designed for those individuals and groups who don't operate with a finish line. Modern Executives who not only ascend the corporate ladder, but also add their own rungs at the top. Constantly learning, growing, and enriching. Business people who don't look for easy answers, but have a constantly evolving set of tools that they use to solve problems, and who develop solutions to help their teams and companies grow.

Texas Executive Education is proud to announce the Modern Executive Series. This collection of five-day classes challenge even the most adept business minds while building on their already formidable skill sets. Advanced programs provide the opportunity to engage not only McCombs business faculty but also other industry elites—all set in the rich environment of Austin, Texas.
